CRYSTAL CITY CONGRATULATIONS

Letters and telephone messages are pouring in upon Rev. F. G. Shaw, manager of Crystal City, congratulating him upon giving the people such a splendid place where they can take their families and enjoy themselves and be amused at the same time.

Dr. Shaw, in return, wishes to thank the people for the appreciation of the effort he has put forth to give the people of St. Louis a real place of amusement and enjoyment. He will write each person a letter after his busy season.

Crystal City is to the colored people of St. Louis what Delmar Garden is to the whites.

It was said by one of the sergeants of the police department that he had never seen a higher and more orderly class of people in any large gathering such as Crystal City.

Dr. Houser, of Louisville, Ky., a prominent physician, who is the guest of Prof. Frank L. Williams, principal of Sumner High, was a visitor at Crystal City Monday night and said: "I have never seen anything carried on in such an elaborate way as a church entertainment." He thought it wonderful.

Prof. Frank L. Williams, after taking in the whole situation, said: "I have heard many criticisms of Crystal City, but I am glad that I find none of the things here that would cause any such criticism."

The Crystal City is certainly appreciated by the people of our city and because of its growing popularity, they have asked that it be a permanent summer resort, so the manager is considering the request and most likely will continue to run Crystal City through the month of August.

LABORERS WEARY OF WAR

BRITISH WORKMEN TO OSMAND CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES.

Things That Make War Possible Must Be Wiped Out of Existence Declares Leader.

London, July 15.—British workmen today are shedding their blood in the trenches and are working hand in hand with the government to save the nation. But when the fighting is over, British labor will say to the government: "We want no more wars—and the things that make wars possible must be wiped out."

Russky McDonald, member of parliament and leader of the independent labor party, made this emphatic statement to the United Press.

McDonald scoffed at the possibility that English workmen would fight enforced enrollment in the army if they were not given the right to work by a national strike. They would oppose conscription with every argument in their power, he said, but they would accept no violent methods if they were overruled.

They Realize Difficulties.

"British labor realizes that the government is in a difficult position and must be helped out," said McDonald. "We must forget past troubles and look to the future by helping the government in its emergency."

"Do you mean that labor benevolence will overlook all its industrial grievances and postpone possible strikes until after the war?" he was asked.

"For the present labor is forced to give in it is inevitable," was his reply.

SUGAR TRUST "TO BE GOOD"

New Head of Company Has Certain Ethical Ideal Said to Be Better Than Ability.

Chicago, July 15.—The man who made the National Biscuit company a success was elected president of the American Sugar Refining company. He is Earl D. Babbitt. With his direction of the sugar company, an era of "trying to be good" will be inaugurated.

The choice of Babbitt, according to Chicago financial circles, is based not only on proved business ability, but on certain ethical ideas which he is said to entertain concerning methods of management of great corporations.

Up to four months ago Babbitt was vice-president of the National Biscuit company, and previously its general counsel. The National Biscuit company has never been attacked by the government. It has got along amicably with its competitors and in other ways its history is said to form a contrast to that of the "sugar trust."

WARSHIP NOW MERCHANTMAN

Steam Barge Pelican, Now at New York for Cargo, Took Part in Attack on Alexandria.

New York, July 15.—An odd-looking ship forced into the merchant service by the insistent demand for more vessels reached here with the arrival of the steam barge Pelican, formerly the ship of war of the same name in the British navy. Recently a mother ship for submarines and a converted whaler came to New York for cargoes.

The Pelican was built by the British admiralty in 1917. She is of the same class as the ship Concord, aboard which Lord Charles Bunsford acquired fame in the attack on Alexandria. The Pelican, too, was in that engagement. She is now the property of the Hudson Bay company and is here for cargo for Great Britain.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE 22,000 PRISONERS

TRENCHES, ONCE LOST, ARE RETAKEN IN GERMAN ATTACKS BY GOSSEBACH.

Violent Battles in West Allies Make Four Assaults on Turkish Positions Before Vassal—German Plans Attack Successful at Libyancourt.

London, July 15.—The allies made four assaults on the Turkish positions in the region of the Dardanelles, and a dispatch to the Daily Express from Athens. They finally occupied two hills defending Kirithia and took 4,000 Turkish prisoners.

London, July 15.—The Russians captured 22,710 officers and men in a surprise fighting in the region of Tashkent, Poland, in the week ending July 11, according to an official statement issued by the Russian war office in Petrograd.

The Russian war office also announced that trenches extending about one and a half miles on the right bank of the Pless River in Poland were captured by the Germans yesterday, were retaken by the Russians by a strong counter attack.

Infantry Engagements in the West. The Argonne forest in France, the region directly to the west of that wood and the sector to the north of Arras are the scenes of very violent fighting.

At other points on the western line there is a continuance of the artillery action. An allied air raid on Libyancourt, France, and Tulle, was successfully carried out by a squadron of heavy aeroplanes, which threw down numerous bombs.

LANSING SEES BERNSTORFF

AMBASSADOR HAS CHANCE TO EXPLAIN NOTE.

Once More Urges U. S. to Protest English Shipments and Understands War Will Cease.

Washington, July 15.—Secretary of State Lansing announced that he had accepted the request of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, for a conference on questions raised in the note to Berlin.

It also was intimated at the state department that the envoy might have another informal talk with President Wilson.

The meeting between the secretary of state and Count von Bernstorff will take place within a few days, probably after the return of President Wilson from Cornish. Just when Mr. Wilson will come to Washington is not known here, but he is expected by Monday at the latest of June 21.

Count von Bernstorff has been in wireless communication with his government ever since he learned through Berlin that in the German press that the reply of the German foreign office to President Wilson's Lusitania reminder was not well received in this country.

Cordially Lost in Translation. The ambassador believed that much of the cordiality of the German note was lost in translating it into English and it is said to be his desire to explain the real attitude of his government chiefly upon the American desire to end the war.

It was learned at the embassy that the ambassador will seek to convince the administration that to its reply Bernstorff is desirous that the president undertake mediation with Great Britain to lift its extraordinary blockade of German ports with understanding that if London yielded Germany would stop its submarine warfare on commerce.

SHALL PROVIDENT HOSPITAL BE CLOSED

Board of Directors Claim Lack of Adequate Support on Part of the Public and Consider Closing of Institution

To the Citizens of St. Louis:

We, the Board of Directors of Provident Hospital, are seriously contemplating the closing of it, because of the lack of adequate support and proper appreciation of the work on the part of the general public.

The financial condition of the institution is good at present. The property is free from debt and there is a nucleus of a building fund in the bank amounting to $1,117.20, the cash result of the campaign of 1914. The operating expenses for current expenses are less than $200, with some good outstanding claims.

The building is in fine condition, although it has been about two years since it was renovated.

The hospital ought not to be closed, but in order to keep it open, it is imperative necessary that assistance in the form of service or money, or its equivalent, be immediately forthcoming.

Some of us have been in the work almost ever since the hospital was opened twenty years ago, and are willing to continue promoting it under the leadership of the board or the cooperation of others.

We have been criticised in the past, and justly so in many instances, and we do not expect to be immune from it in the future, as all institutions for the people are more or less the objects of criticism. We have no feeling of resentment on that account against any one, but on the contrary have tried to remedy the defects complained of if they were of a substantial character.

Mme C. J. Walker At St. Paul Church Monday Evening

It will be a great treat and everybody dead sure to be well paid if they come out Monday, July 19, to St. Paul Chapel to hear Madame C. J. Walker, of Indianapolis, the foremost colored culturist in the world.

Madam Walker's rise to fame has been wonderful. Every ambitious person should hear her in her famous illustrated lecture. She will show the growth of her business to the value of over $100,000 in real estate.

Madam Walker's generosity has been remarkable, not only in St. Louis, her home city, but to every noble enterprise everywhere. Many institutions have received large donations from her. Let everybody come. This lecture is given under the auspices of the St. Paul Mite Missionary Society, of St. Louis Chapter O. E. S.

DR. F. F. MARTYN BACK FROM HIS VACATION

The popular pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the energetic leader in all enterprises for race betterment, our respected friend and citizen, Dr. F. F. Martyn, has returned to the city after a month's absence and rest. Dr. Martyn looks well and much benefited from his vacation, and has returned full of vigor and determination that he will do big things.

He will preach next Sunday, both morning and night, and special preparations are being made for a great crowd to welcome him back. The pastor will announce his decision regarding the flattering call extended him while away and make a statement about his plans for the future.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS

Corp. Wm. L. White, Camp No. 10, United Spanish War Veterans, met Tuesday night at Masonic Hall. The meeting characterized the spirit of the organization, friendship, patriotism and honor.

All veterans of the Spanish War and the Philippine insurrection are invited to join: Historian Mitchell, the editor of the Argus, made a eloquent address to his fellow-comrades on the good of the Camp and its influence. Leonard J. Tuglie is the Commander, and Louis J. Mills is the Adjutant. Meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Information given about our soldier boys' organization at the Argus office by Historian Mitchell.

We are proud of the fact that we, and those who have been associated with us in the past, have been able to maintain and keep alive the institution under such adverse conditions, and that we have had the confidence of the general public to the extent of enabling us to put $60,000.00 in a piece of property, besides keeping up expenses, and to be practically out of debt at the end of nearly twenty years.

The hospital ought to be kept open for many reasons, among which are the following:

Because it affords the only opportunity for our young women to take course in nurse training in the city, and that of itself is a sufficient reason for its continued existence.

Because it is the only institution in the city where our colored physicians can treat their patients, but that is not a sufficient reason for thinking that they should be responsible for the expenses of maintaining it, as the physician must sometimes give up a part of his usual fee for the hospital service.

Because many of the white physicians can treat their colored patients only in our institution, and they furnish the bulk of the patients.

And, lastly, because of the business experience gained by us in successfully conducting a hospital.

"Is it nothing to you?" if Provident Hospital should close its doors? Board of Directors of Provident Hospital, Edward S. Williams, President. Hutchings Inart, Secretary.

MAKE LYNCHING A FEDERAL OFFENSE

Under the Constitution of the United States, the American Negro is a citizen of the United States. As a citizen, he is entitled to all the constitutional rights of any other citizen. Among these rights are "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

His pursuit of happiness is badly handicapped by wicked discrimination, outrageous oppression, and, in many sections, illegal segregation.

His liberty is made largely a mockery by bitter prejudice, until in many respects his condition is little better than the slavery of old.

His life, highest and most sacred of all privileges given by the Creator, and His only to take away—his life is at the will and pleasure of the mob. Guilty or innocent of any wrong, it matters not; it only depends upon whether the gentlemen and cavaliers who chance to have a white skin are in mood for bloodshed. If so, a lynching here is an easy and convenient outlet. "One nigger less—much the better!"

We do not stop to express our opinion of lynching. We do not dwell on its un-Christian character, its aspects of plain barbarism, its disgrace to an enlightened age and country, and its parody on American freedom.

Yet all these points might be enlarged upon, in view of the fact that this country claims to be the typical Christian country of the world, boasts of its civilization, is proud of its enlightenment, and calls itself "the land of the free and the home of the brave." Freedom! Where? Bravery? How!

As a mere physical matter, it is as easy to lynch a Negro as it is to slaughter a lamb. And as for shooting the body full of holes, why, children could do that. Bravery, indeed!

The government, either state or national, which permits these recurring lynchings and lifts not a finger to stop them forever, is lacking in every sense of moral courage.

When you consider the treatment of the Negro in this country—his only and native country, for which he has lived, and labored, and fought, and suffered, and died—then when you add to this a consideration of the nation's cringing attitude in its foreign relations, its appropriate motto comes nearer being, "The land of the slave and the home of the coward."

But we are diverging somewhat. We started out to say something about lynching, and it is this. Lynching is clearly a violation of the federal Constitution; therefore it should be made a federal offense. We do not go so far as to say, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," therefore the lyncher should be lynched by statute, or otherwise forfeit his life, though that would be perfectly fair; but we do say this. Any person or body of persons who take the law into their own hands and sacrifice a life should be mercilessly whipped by justice, and the whipper should be "Your Uncle Sam." Why? Because, first, lynch law is an insult to the justice, moral sense and peace of the nation, and should rank with treason. Second, because the life of every citizen belongs to the nation, and he can be compelled in time of need to lay his life down in the defense of his country.

Every Negro lynched means just two things: an insulting slap in the face of the nation, and the absolute theft of a life that belongs to the nation.

Insult and injury! Is any further argument needed to show that lynching should be made a federal offense?

NEEDS OF ST. LOUIS

The needs of colored St. Louis loom up large before us. We see them as never before, distinctly, vividly and sadly. After an absence of several weeks, seeing other cities, studying other conditions and meeting other people, we have returned to St. Louis with two feelings strong upon us.

One is a deeper conviction than ever before of the serious defects of the St. Louis Negro in the aggregate, that is, as a whole people. The other feeling is a desire and a determination to bend our every effort, personally and through the Argus, to lift Negro St. Louis to the place it should occupy in the nation.

When compared with other cities we are woefully lacking. First and worst is the lack of unity. In this we seem to be the butt of ridicule everywhere. Then comes the lack of pride, which keeps us low in the social and commercial scale. Then there is the lack of federation, especially in religious and civic work. As a consequence, we not only make no progress, but we are losing the ground we hold.

But we have not space to enumerate. We want to say this: the months lying ahead are going to be trying months for the St. Louis Negro. Much, if not all, depends upon ourselves whether another year or less finds us segregated, out of the postal service, out of municipal offices, racially torn asunder, our churches struggling, gasping, dying, and darkness before us.

We are no pessimist—no calamity howler. We only read the signs of the times. We sound a warning here and now. The signs are very clear.

Negroes of St. Louis, we have got to come together in spirit and in union, until we are one—one in aspiration, one in determination, one in consummation.

The Argus will be with you.

Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Maryland
"Father of Religious Liberty in America"

HISTORY proves to their eternal honor, that the Catholics were the first in America to advocate the Freedom of all sects to worship at their shrines they chose to bend a knee. Of all the cavaliers of Maryland, none were more noble and none more devoted to Liberty more than Charles Carroll, who, with his kinsman, Archbishop John Carroll, strove for the hereditary rights of mankind to practice Civil and Religious Liberty. Carroll was one of the richest and most learned men in the Colonies and when he proudly affixed his name to our immortal Declaration of Independence he courted the confiscation of his vast estates. A byzantine factionary remarked as he did so, "There goes a few millions." He was elected to the National Convention which adopted the Constitution of the United States, but illness forbade his attendance. His cousin, though, Daniel Carroll, signed our National Law, which forever guarantees to Americans Civil, Religious and Personal Liberty.

BASEBALL

CARLINVILLE TEAM COMINO BACK TO MEET THE REAL GIANTS

The Carlinville (Mount Olive) baseball team took advantage of the St. Louis Giants' crippled condition last Sunday and gave them a good trouncing, 17 to 12. A sprained ankle, a lacerated hand, a wrenched side and a sore pitching arm composed the hospital section of the stars. Manager Mills was compelled to send against the white boys, and although badly beaten they were game and deserve credit. Feeling the sting of defeat, Mills and his boys are determined to show up the intruders and have booked a return engagement for next Sunday at Kachel's Park, 6100 N. Broadway, where they will be ready to give the Carlinville boys a warm reception. The Giants will wipe this black spot off their record Sunday afternoon. Go out to Kachel's Park and see if they don't.

Joe Sargeant, the crack shortstop of the Carlinville team, who plays the Giants Sunday, has been ordered to report to the Cardinals, July 25. We'll compare him with Dick Wallace first.

SUNDAY MORNING BASEBALL

Get some fresh air Sunday morning. Ride to Kachel's Park, 6100 N. Broadway and see the Union Electric play ball. Game called at 10 a. m. Admission 10 cents. W. T. Brindford, Mgr.

TIM MOORE FEATURES BOOKER WASHINGTON SHOW

Tim Moore easily fills the role of comedian as a booker at Washington Theatre this week. As a parodist Tim is without a peer and his monologue work is extremely funny. Working alone, this week, he is making such a big hit with the audience it can be well stated that he features the bill. His three parodies on "The Hottest Coon in Dixie," "Everybody's Doing It," and "On the Sands of the Desert" are knockout and call for vociferous applause. As a comedian Tim is far in advance of the field.

Brown and Brown in a musical comedy act are very good. The lady presides at a unique musical instrument called organ chimes and gets much harmonious music out of the combination. The male member plays the banjo, does considerable vocal work and pulls off a telephone stunt that is a scream. Both are generally applauded.

Ora Criswell, in a reconstructed vehicle, located on the Isle of Bye and Bye, is as comical as ever. In addition to her humorous actions and expressions she is singing "Jungle Babe" and "Chief Bunga Boo." Her act, as usual, goes good.

Lillard and Massengale, present a musical act with Massengale playing a trombone and Lillard doing the vocal work. After a dialogue opening, Lillard sings, "Never Too Late to be Sorry." Massengale plays the "Cincinnati" brass recomposed from "The St. Louis Blues." They close with a duet. The team is well up to the average.

A new feature, "The Blues" Piano Contest, for the championship of St. Louis, will begin at the Booker Washington Saturday night.

CLUTCHING HAND AND MASTER KEY TWO SPECIAL SERIALS AT PENDLETON AIRDOME

The Master Key has been drawing immense crowds to the Pendleton Airdome. Fairfax and Pendleton, on Saturday evenings. The Clutching Hand will be run every Thursday, beginning this week. Some of the best pictures in the city can be seen at this airdome and all the favorites, including Charlie Chaplin, are included in the role of actors. The management has changed the Sunday admission to 5 cents, same as other nights. This new West End picture place is enjoying large patronage, a crowded house being invariably the rule.

CENTRAL BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTING JULY 28

Annual Affair at O'Fallon Park. Grounds 1 and 2. Athletic Features. Baseball Game Between Married and Single Ladies.

The annual outing of the Central Baptist Sunday-school will be given at O'Fallon Park, grounds 1 and 2, July 28. We realize that this is one of the attractions that claims the attention of many St. Louisians who spend the summer at home. Therefore we aim at making it worth your while, by having everything thoroughly and carefully arranged for your pleasure. There will be a strictly high-grade athletic program from 2 o'clock until 6. Baseball, Central vs. Antioch (boys), dashes from 25 to 100 yards, primary and junior department, basket ball, crack tennis, duffel, needle and thread races (women) and last, but the best of all the day's events, will close with a game of baseball between the single ladies and married ladies, this you can't afford to miss. Good music will serve to keep your sentimental nature alive through the day, together with the choicest refreshments of the season. Everybody is welcome. It will be just like going out with the family to you. Come and have a "bally" time at our expense and remember it's the "school that helps" whose motto is "Only once a stranger."

I never judged, as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would know, but looking, cannot know. GLADSTONE is not a clairvoyant from choice, but because fate has so directed it. His ancestors were powerful mediums and have for ages handed down their wonderful power of gift from generation to generation. So he has received the rich inheritance together with the priceless knowledge and priceless experience of generations. No matter what your present trouble may be or what your past experience has been, you will save time and avoid disappointment by at once consulting Gladstone.

NOTE—Gladstone answers no letters. If you cannot call in person, do not write, as his time is fully occupied with his personal calls.
